Taiga at the 2019 ORA Gala

During the 2019 ORA Gala [Outstanding Retailers Award Gala] Taiga's Eastern Canadian VP, Bruno Jean, proudly presented the award for Best Young Retailer to Rebecca Wichers-Schreur of Wood Works of Renfrew.

Also during the 2019 ORA Gala, Taiga's long-standing partner, Johns Manville, presented the award for Best Contractor Specialist to Rob deGret of Wolf Creek Building Supplies, located in Lacombe, AB.

The winners are carefully chosen from a field of high-quality nominees submitted from across the country. The winners stood out within this elite group thanks to their ability to exceed in the areas of good business practices, customer relations, innovation and niche marketing.

"As with every industry, there are companies that stand out and individuals who make a difference. We are proud to recognize the excellence in our industry through these awards," said Michael McLarney, President of Hardlines Inc., which presents the awards.

Launched in 1992, the Hardlines Outstanding Retailer Awards are the industry's only national awards program dedicated to celebrating the achievements of hardware and building supply dealers in Canada. In its 27-year history, the program has honoured more than 160 retailers.

Taiga would like to congratulate all the other winners highlighted at the event.

Sarah Caruso and Jeff Muench

Taiga Milton Auction

For the past 7 years, Taigans at the Milton office work together to raise money to support the Breast Cancer Society of Canada. This year they raised over $1,800 to support this fantastic charity, through hosting both an auction and bake sale, as well as from generous and on-line donations

To top it all off, since Taiga Milton exceeded their target, Sarah Caruso shaved her head to support this great cause! Amazing job team.
